Official Paper of the County.
L. HARPER, Editor and Proprietor.
MOUNT VERNON, OHIO.
FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 9, 1879
To the Democracy of Knox County.

The Democratic Nominating Convention will be held at the Court House, Mt. Vernon, O., on at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of putting in nomination a Democratic County ticket to be voted for on Tuesday, the 14th day of October, 1879, and to select delegates to the coming State and Senatorial Conventions. Each township in the County will be entitled to three delegates, and each ward in the City of Mt. Vernon to one delegate, in said County Convention. The said delegates shall be chosen by the Democratic voters of Knox County at their usual places of holding elections on Friday, May 23d, 1879, between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock, P. M., in the several townships, and between the hours of 6 and 8 o'clock P. M. in the several wards of the City of Mt. Vernon. At said primary meetings each township, and each ward in the City of Mt. Vernon, will select three active, working Democrats to act as advisory committees in the several voting precincts of the county during the coming campaign, the names of which advisory committees shall be reported to the Secretary of said County Convention. By order of the Democratic Central Committee of Knox County, O.
JOHN D. THOMPSON, Chairman.
NEVIL WHITEHEAD, Secretary.

The ballot, and not the bayonet, shall rule in this country.

There are many able Democrats in Congress; but a leader is sadly needed.

Radical Platform—Pauper negro labor in the North, and bayonets at the polls.

Why cannot our Republican friends "compromise" on Hon. Columbus Delano for Governor?

The movement to make John Sherman Governor of Ohio don't mean a third term for Grant.

Bear in mind that the Democratic State Convention will be held in Columbus on the 4th of June.

The Cameron Legislature of Pennsylvania has indorsed the veto of the fraudulent "President."

"Going to meet Grant" will not be so much talked about, if the Sherman boom starts to booming.

The price of a vote in the Pennsylvania Legislature ranges from $50 to $500, according to circumstances.

A movement is now on foot to make John Sherman the Republican candidate for Governor of Ohio.

"A Military Government—Grant—An Empire," is all the platform the Radicals will want for 1879 and 1880.

The Stalwarts are shouting for joy and burning gunpowder because they have captured the fraudulent "President."

The Columbus Democrat well says that the Alien and Sedition laws on the statute books to-day, Hayes would veto their repeal.

Mr. Hayes will not travel South this year with his Presidential menagerie, as he designs wearing the bloody-shirt in the North hereafter.

Mother Stewart for Governor, and Sister Nichols of the Springfield Republic, for Lieutenant Governor, would be a formidable Republican ticket.

His recent attack of "mumps" seems to have paralyzed the tongue and dried up the ink fountain of that stupendous bore, "Private" Dalzell.

The Okolona States now ranks among the leading Republican papers in the United States. Subscriptions received by all the Hayes postmasters.

The Newark American, after giving Colonel Cass a "good send off" for Auditor of State, now brings forward the name of Henry S. Babbitt for that position.

Senator Bayard says of the veto, it is the most wanton use of power known in our history, and another proof of the fact, Hayes is a very small man in a very large place.

As Hayes has been received into full fellowship with the stalwarts, it is now more than probable that he will become their candidate for President in 1880, instead of Grant.

Hayes' "rebel" Postmaster General has given the long advertisement for mail letting in Mississippi to the "rebel" Okolona States. "A fellow feeling makes them wondrous kind."

The Chicago Times, the Boston Herald, and all the anti-Tilden papers in New York, favor the nomination of Senator David Davis as the Democratic candidate for President.

The Democratic local committee at Okolona, Miss., have publicly denounced the "States" of that place as a newspaper that in no wise represents the sentiments of the people there.

Among the curious items of news we have recently read in the papers, was an account of a dog taking the whooping cough from a little girl, and of a man taking glanders from a horse.

Now, if Paul Boyton could be persuaded to undertake the task of swimming across the Atlantic, and would "interview" a whale on the passage, he might become as well known as Mr. Jonah.

The proclamation of Mr. R. B. Hayes will not prevent white men from settling in the Indian Territory, if they wish to go there. Many of them become landed proprietors by "marrying" squaws.

Governor Bishop started for New York on Friday last, "on purely private business," as he stated; but the irrepressible newspaper Bohemians, who "know everything, and more too," feel confident that he went to consult the retired statesman of Gracery Park.

The condition of affairs in Russia is simply horrible, and is getting worse every day. Secret societies exist all over the Empire, and the Emperor has employed an army of detectives and spies to ascertain the names of the members and learn what they propose doing. Many members of these societies are bribed to reveal what they know, and this followed by assassinations. Arrests are matters of every day occurrence. Six political prisoners are to be built, each capable of holding 6,000 prisoners. A bloody revolution is impending.

Major W. W. Armstrong, of the Cleveland Plain Dealer, having been favorably spoken of for Lieutenant Governor as well as Governor, defines his position in these words: "The party spoken of is not now, nor has he ever been, a candidate for either of the offices named. He would not under any circumstances, if he were sure of securing the nomination, accept either of them. He cannot afford to step down from his editorial desk to become an officeholder. He knows too much about politics to do that."

A daughter of Roscoe Conkling was married the other day to Mr. William Oakman, Superintendent of a New York Railroad; but mildred Roscoe fancied the young gentleman was "not good enough" to come into his family, and would not attend the wedding. All the rest of the family, however, were present, and the affair was very brilliant. Mr. Conkling made the sensible observation that "one great man in a family was enough."

Now, let the Republicans and their bogus "President" keep up a standing army to control elections, and we will see what the result will be. A Democratic Senate and House of Representatives may have a voice in determining who shall be the next President of these United States; and as sure as fate if soldiers are stationed near the polls in any State, that will be sufficient reason for refusing to count the electoral vote thereof. Mark that!

The movement to nominate "the old ticket," composed of Tilden and Hendricks, has met with a very decided negative from the junior partner, Mr. Hendricks, who says, very emphatically, that under no circumstances will he consent to become a candidate for Vice President.

A new deal will therefore be inevitable, and Allen G. Thurman is the man to lead the Democratic hosts to victory and to glory.

A Tobacco Train, loaded by P. Lorillard & Co., of New York, made the run from New York to Chicago, on Thursday last week, in the unprecedented time of 24 hours and 25 minutes. The stamps on the boxes in the cars cost $16,160, which was a saving of $8,000 to the firm under the new law, reducing the tax on tobacco from 24 cents a pound to 10 cents a pound on the first of May.

The Republicans will get tired after a while of being taxed to keep up this negro exodus business. They may make some votes, but they may also lose votes by the operation. There are a good many working men in the Republican party in these United States who will never again vote with a party that seeks to introduce cheap Chinese and cheap negro labor in opposition to free white labor.

The investigation at Philadelphia (says the Pittsburgh Post) demonstrated the deputies were all Republicans, many of them recently out of the Penitentiary and Work House, and that they were gamblers, thieves, bullies and scoundrels of the lowest class. It is upon these Hayes is willing to rest the chances of the Republican party, and he says he is conscientious about it.

Every once in a while Murat Halstead of the Cincinnati Commercial goes to New York and Washington to have himself "interviewed." But here in Ohio the opinions of this man and his paper have no more weight than the utterances of a X roads country newspaper.

John Sherman now says that his visit to Mansfield was merely for the purpose of "catching up his fences." Werry likely, Samvel! Wonder if John has any fences to "patch up" in Columbus, Cincinnati, Toledo and Cleveland?

The Commissioners of Stark county, as a compromise, have accepted from the bondsmen of Fessler, the defaulting Treasurer, $25,000, which is 30 per cent. of their liability. The balance, $10,000, will be paid by the county.

Judge Taft has written a letter saying that he will not be a candidate for the United States Senate.—Columbus Dispatch.

Yes, and the traditional Jack once wrote a letter telling his anxious friends not to expect him at tea time.

The Prohibitionists of Franklin county on Saturday nominated a full county ticket headed by Dr. J. B. Bauman, P. E. Fleck and Dr. Z. C. Paine for Representatives, and C. A. Redding, of Westerville, for Sheriff.

There is no man in Ohio that we would rather see Governor than Durbin Ward; but custom has decreed that Governor Bishop is entitled to a second term, and he should be nominated without opposition.

Ohio's distinguished son, Hon. Samuel F. Hunt, will deliver the annual Oratorical before the Literary Societies of the University of Virginia, on the 3d of July. This is a high honor for Mr. Hunt.

The movement to bring out General Keifer, of Clark county, as a Republican candidate for Governor, was started by the opponents of Mr. Oglesby, of the same county, who is a candidate for Auditor of State.

Every President since the organization of our government down to the present time, except Grant and Hayes, have declared that the military should be subordinate to the civil power of the Government.

Bill Chandler has been chosen Secretary of the Republican Congressional Committee, a position he will fill with his usual ability, if any dishonest and tricky measures are deemed necessary.

It is possible that the Okolona man is losing his grip.—Cleveland Herald. Ask his political friend and admirer, General Robinson, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee.

If Andy Johnson had used the veto power in the manner the fraudulent "President" did recently, he would have been instantly impeached and removed by a Republican Congress.

The Washington Post has these encouraging words, which we hope will turn out to be true:

We send good news to the Democracy of the nation. Their representatives in Congress will not surrender to the party of force and fraud. They have planted themselves on high ground in defense of impartial justice, a free ballot and a honest count. THEY INTEND TO STICK.

Col. John C. Thompson, Sergeant-at-Arms of the House of Representatives, Washington, arrived at Columbus on Saturday, and was soon in private consultation with General A. V. Rice, who is a candidate for Governor. Thompson says he came home to see after a new residence he is erecting; but most folks think that some new political scheme is on foot.

The Sunday laws are now faithfully observed in Newark, New Jersey. An ordinance put a stop to beer-selling on Sunday, whereupon the Germans commenced proceedings against the milkmen, cab-drivers, street railroads, the vendors of newspapers, and all others doing work on that day; and now "a stillness as of death" reigns in Newark.

The New Park Hotel, at Columbus, which was opened about two months ago in grand style, has already passed into the hands of a Receiver. The trouble seems to be that the stockholders didn't pay up, according to agreement. Claims to the amount of over $30,000 have been filed, of which $8,820 is for furniture, and $9,627 for carpets.

The Ohio Statesman says: Beatty and his party of Stalwarts have issued an address to the Republicans of the State, in which they arrogantly reject Hayes, Charley Foster and the conservatives out of the Republican party. These stalwart toads who imagine themselves grown to the dimension of oxen, may burst if they inflate any more.

The Ohio Democrat, (New Philadelphia), says: Hon. Geo. W. Geddes made his maiden speech in Congress April 22. Although naturally a modest man, he spoke very plainly when denouncing the use of military at the polls, and "super-visors" of elections. Judge Geddes at once takes rank among the ablest debaters in the House.

General Warner, Congressman from the Marietta district, delivered an eloquent and exhaustive speech on the Silver Bill on Saturday. He was listened to with marked attention (which is something unusual for a new member), and at the close of his remarks he was warmly congratulated on his successful effort.

Mrs. Sarah Joseph Hale, the well-known editor of Godey's Lady's Book for over forty years, died at her residence in Philadelphia, on last Wednesday evening, at the advanced age of 91 years.

No lady writer in America was better known than Mrs. Hale. She was a polished and instructive writer.

The Welland Canal opens to-day for through navigation, and for the first time water for full navigation will be taken from Lake Erie.—Cleveland Herald.

We are astonished at the ignorance of our friend of the Herald. The waters of Lake Erie have nothing to do with the navigation of the Welland Canal.

One of the grievances set forth in the Declaration of Independence against old King George was that "He has kept among us in times of peace standing armies without the consent of our Legislature." That is just what the Republican party and their bogus "President" are now doing.

Over a week ago it was announced that an agent of Mr. Tilden was in Cincinnati, on his way to Kentucky and other Southern States, to arrange the Presidential programme for 1880. We now see it stated that the Democracy of Kentucky have declared for Tilden and Hendricks.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says: If these Republican thieves who stole the money from the Freedmen's Bank, at Washington, were compelled to disgorge and send it to Kansas to help the darkies who have come North to get "forty acres and a mule," it would be a good thing.

Boss Shepherd, the head devil of the old Grant ring at Washington, offers to bet $100 to $500 that no other name than Grant's will be mentioned at the next Republican National Convention. It would be worth a National Bank to the Boss to have his money back in Washington.

Altoona, a City of 20,000, is indebted to the State of Pennsylvania for taxes to the amount of $4,208.10, without a dollar in her treasury to pay the same. The probabilities are that the City will be knocked down to the highest bidder one of these days to satisfy this claim.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has passed a bill granting an annual pension of $75 to surviving soldiers of the Mexican war from Pennsylvania who have resided in that State for more than 20 years prior to the passage of the bill, and also to the widows of deceased soldiers.

Murat Halstead announced to an interviewer the other day that "if a bayonet is seen at the next Presidential election within twenty-five miles of the polls, in any State, the Democrats will throw that State out." Of course the Field Marshal knows all about it.

We hope every member of Congress will stand up to the work like General Ewing. He said the other day: "This is an irrepressible conflict between right and wrong. The right is asked to succumb to the wrong. Never, never, be it with my vote!"

Secretary Sherman and General Ewing are not brothers-in-law, as some of our exchanges have given out. It was General Sherman who married General Ewing's sister. John Sherman married a daughter of the late Judge Stewart of Mansfield.

Field Marshal Murat Halstead, of the Cincinnati Commercial, has been in New York, to have himself "interviewed." He makes the astounding disclosure that the Tilden men let Cincinnati go Republican at the late election in order to beat Thurman.

The Philadelphia Telegraph (Rep.) don't take kindly to Grant, and referring to the status of the Republican party when he came into power and when he retired, says "General Grant is the greatest party wrecker in our political history."

The gentlemen most spoken of for Governor during the past week have been John Sherman on the Republican side, and General Ewing on the Democratic side. Next week it will probably be Papry Taft and Uncle Dick again.

Sherman is Their Man.

John Sherman, Mr. Hayes' Secretary of the Treasury, arrived at Mansfield on Monday, and it is said that before he returns to Washington he will visit Columbus, Cincinnati, Toledo and Cleveland. Although Mr. Sherman has said that this visit is purely of a private nature, without any political significance, it is now generally understood that it is a part of the programme, arranged before he left Washington, to prepare the way for his nomination as the Republican candidate for Governor of Ohio.

We do not believe that Mr. Sherman would exchange his present position, as the leading member of the Cabinet, merely for the purpose of going through a gubernatorial contest in Ohio. That is not the object of his political ambition. He unquestionably has his heart set upon the Presidency; and he fancies that if he can be first elected Governor the Republicans would regard him as the most available candidate for President.

Mr. Sherman before coming to Ohio visited New York, and while there, it is said that he had a private conference with the mounted men of Wall street, who control the Republican party. With this class he is very popular, because he always studied their interests and has been ever ready to carry out their wishes. They would rather trust him than Grant, or even Conkling, although the latter gentleman is a citizen of their own State. It is believed, also, that Hayes, who was made "President" through the scheming of John Sherman more than any other man, is anxious to make Sherman his successor as a return for the valuable political services rendered by that gentleman.

It may therefore be set down as a fixed fact that John Sherman is the man that the moneyed aristocracy of the country have fixed upon as their candidate for President, and this visit to Ohio is purely with the view of arranging the details of the programme agreed upon at Washington and New York.

No Bayonets at the Polls.

The fraudulent "President" having vetoed the bill to put an end to bayonet rule at the polls, on the pretext that it rendered the civil power ineffective, the Joint Democratic Committee of Congress, have prepared a new Bill, which reads as follows:

A bill to prevent military interference with elections.

Whereas, The use of troops at the polls is contrary to the spirit of our institutions and the traditions of our people and tends to destroy the freedom of elections; therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Section 1. That no military or naval force shall be employed in the execution of the laws at any election held in any State, Territory, or District, or in any city, town, or village, or in any place where an election is held, and the same are hereby repealed.

A proviso is attached to the bill declaring that nothing contained in it shall affect the power of the President to use the army and navy of the United States as provided in the Constitution and the act of 1795. This act prescribes the manner in which the States shall call and the President respond to an application for aid to put down insurrection or domestic violence in the States. The bill is drawn to narrow the issue between Congress and Hayes to the single question of the use of troops at the polls.

The bill also affects the powers of the civil officers of the Government under the posse comitatus clause. The use of the army as a posse is forbidden. There is nothing in the bill to prevent civil officers from arming a posse of civilians.

P. S. The new Bill, above alluded to forbidding the interference of troops at elections, passed the House of Representatives on Tuesday by a vote of 124 to 90, eleven Greenbackers voting with the Democrats for the bill, and two declined to vote.

A Horrible Partridge.

A horrible partridge was committed near Monterey, Clermont county on Thursday last week. A well-to-do farmer named John H. Whitaker, had a lazy, worthless son, (Jonathan) who spent most of his time in hunting, fishing and loafing about the country. The father undertook to correct these failings by frequent whippings, and at length gave his son such an unmerciful beating as to disfigure his face and body, and then drove him from home. The young man, exasperated at this treatment, went to a neighbors and borrowed a shot gun, saying that he wanted to shoot hawks. He then started towards his father's house, and meeting the old gentleman at the gate the quarrel was renewed. All of a sudden the young man took deliberate aim at his father and shot him dead. He then walked to Monterey and gave himself up. He said he had no idea of shooting his father when he borrowed the gun; but claims that he did the act in self-defense. The excitement over the affair was intense and threats of lynching the young man were freely made, but no leader appeared.

Fighting Editors in Indianapolis.

For some time past a bitter newspaper quarrel has been going on between George C. Harding of the Indianapolis Herald, and C. A. Light of the Indianapolis Democrat—each trying to see which could say the nastiest and vilest things of the other.

Finally, Light charged Harding with having ruined his own daughter, who committed suicide some two years ago, to cover her shame. This made Harding uncontrollably desperate, and he made two attempts to kill Light—one on Sunday night, and the other on Monday. On the latter occasion he visited the Democrat office, and although he fired five times at Light, none of the shots hit him. Two of the bullets, however, hit compositors in the office, inflicting dangerous wounds.

Harding is now in jail, under medical treatment, being somewhat deranged.

The Kentucky Democratic State Convention, which met at Louisville on Friday last, nominated the following tickets: for Governor, Dr. Luke P. Blackburn; for Lieutenant Governor, James E. Cantrell; for Attorney-General, P. W. Harding; for Auditor, Fayette Hewitt. Resolutions were unanimously adopted indorsing the action of Congress in favor of a free ballot in opposition to a military force at the polls.

Secretary Sherman made a speech at Mansfield on Monday evening, in response to a complimentary serenade. His remarks were confined to two topics: eulogy of his resignation policy, and advocacy of bayonets at the polls. He reiterated the statement that he was not a candidate for Governor, but the sincerity of this declaration will soon be put to the test.

A letter from Gov. Hendricks is published, denying that he favors the nomination of the ticket of 1876 for 1880. He says: "I did not, as is known, desire the nomination in 1876 as a candidate for the Vice Presidency, and do not think it would in any contingency be my duty again to accept a nomination for a position which I do not desire."

Some Republicans (Grant men) at Columbus pretend to have made the discovery that this movement in favor of Sherman's candidacy for Governor, was started by the Democrats, in order to bring Judge Thurman out as a candidate for President, and thus head off Mr. Tilden. That is a very likely story.

The Cincinnati Enquirer states the case in a few words: "The Executive says that the Federal Government should use troops and armed men at the polls, and the Congress says it shouldn't. The people unquestionably support the position of Congress."

The Radicals fired salutes in Chicago, Toledo, Cleveland and Milwaukee, because the bogus "President" vetoed the Army bill. The same men would no doubt fire a salute if a military despotism was established in this country.

Samuel Pavey, and his son, Taylor Pavey, extensive dealers in live stock, were shot and instantly killed near Leesburg, Ohio, Saturday night, by John Link, Pavey's step-son. Link, who surrendered to the Marshal, states that he was engaged in conversation with his mother at the gate of the residence, when the Pavays came up, and after some words attacked him with clubs, when to save his life he drew a revolver and shot both. The cause of the difficulty was ill treatment by Samuel Pavey, of his second wife, who was Link's mother.
